INSURANCE SINCE 1919

TL Dallas & Co Ltd (TL Dallas) is hosting an event for farmers and crofters, together with representatives from Harper Macleod Solicitors and RSM UK Tax and Accounting Limited, to help solve any insurance, legal or accounting issues farmers might have.

Refreshments and a warm welcome from Ruth Newbold and the TL Dallas team awaits on Thursday 26th October at 2pm in the Auditorium at Shetland Museum & Archives.

Harper Macleod Solicitors
Calum Macleod is a specialist in crofting law, and he will cover the rights and obligations of landowners and crofters. Leigh Beirne is a succession planning expert in the rural sector and will help farmers understand how best to plan for the future.

RSM UK Tax and Accounting Limited
Karen Robertson and Irene Hambleton will talk about tax matters and issues facing family businesses.

TL Dallas
Philip Jackson has been arranging farm insurance and handling claims for over 40 years and has helped farms work through devastating events like BSE and Foot and Mouth, as well as major farming insurance losses. He now specialises in farm insurance audits and will explain the benefits of having a local insurance broker on the island.
